CFAC to Hold Listening Sessions
Local Arts Organization Will Share "Uncommon Communities" Lessons

Cabot, AR: The Cabot Foundation for Arts & Culture today announced a series of listening sessions for the community. The group's participation in the Uncommon Communities program at the Winthrop Rockefeller institute inspired the sessions. These Listening Sessions are a conversation starter and offer a new way for Cabot community citizens to engage in a discussion about the direction they want the city to go.

"We've learned through our time at Uncommon Communities that having an open dialogue with as many community members as possible is the only way to create lasting change," says Becky Williams, VP at CFAC. "The entire community is welcome and encouraged to attend."

Three Listening Sessions will be held between Feb 21st –March 3rd , at Rebecca Williams Photography studio: 12406 Hwy 5 Ste G. For more information on the listening sessions follow CFAC on Facebook: <http://facebook.com/cabotfoundation>.

About CFAC: CFAC is a new non-profit arts organization in Cabot. It's mission is to promote community through arts and culture. The group was founded as a direct result of the members' participation in Uncommon Communities, where they were inspired to do more for the community.
